Your weekend starts here...

It should have been us!

■ YOUR MAJESTY: The Queen spent 15 minutes meeting delighted local people at Crewkerne Town Hall

IT was sweetness and delight on the day. Everyone was thrilled to see the Queen enter Crewkerne Town Hall. But civic chiefs were more thrilled than their clerical cousins, it has now emerged.

Unbeknown to most people in Crewkerne, the Queen's destination should have been St Bartholomew's Church, not the Town Hall!

And many more churchgoers - and possibly fewer civic souls - would have been present during the royal visit.

The switch in venues came to light in this month's edition of the Crewkerne parish magazine.

An article by Church Warden Dorothy Tozer sheds new light on the twists and turns during months of top-secret preparations for the royal tour.

By Alex Alexander

She said: "The visit by the Queen and Prince Philip on May 2nd was originally planned to be focused on the church, when many more of the congregation would have been able to be there."

"Lady Gass (the Queen's representative in Somerset)... had wanted us to host the event in the first place. "For several reasons, however, it was not to be, and after many months of secret planning it was finally decided, about a month before, that the visit would be at the Town Hall."

"Therefore, it was only possible for a limited number from the church to be in attendance."

"Everything was decided by Palace officials and Lady Gass, the Lord Lieutenant of Somerset."

"The time available was very brief, around 15 minutes, and Lady Gass did her best to arrange for the church to be represented."

In the event, just five people from St Bartholomew's met the Queen.

The church group included Mrs Tozer and the Rector of Crewkerne, the Reverend Michael Gallagher.

Mrs Tozer also revealed an intriguing architectural aside that the queen mentioned while chatting to the St Bartholomew's group.

"She revealed that our (the church's) West façade is modelled on St George's, Windsor."

Mrs Tozer added: "She shook hands with all of us. I shall not wash mine for a while!"

Maiden Beech rated 'good' in surprise OFSTED inspection

By Alex Alexander

THREE educational experts swooped on Maiden Beech Middle School, Crewkerne, in mid-May for a surprise OFSTED inspection with just 24 hours' notice.

But they departed with a "good" overall impression and said the school was "outstanding" in parts. The inspectors also said the school is poised to get even better under the leadership of recently-appointed headteacher, Stephen Smith.

Details of the report emerged this month when OFSTED inspector Robin Gaff wrote to the 440 pupils thanking them for their co-operation and praising them for their contribution to the success of the school.

He said: "Yours is a good school. You told us that you feel safe there because there is little bullying and when it does occur the school deals with it well.

"You behave sensibly in lessons and around the school, and are keen to express your ideas.

"We were particularly impressed by the way you respond to the 'big questions' which the headteacher poses for you on the [school] website.

"Some of you say that you are not happy with the points system for encouraging good behaviour because you think that not all teachers apply it fairly and consistently.

"You make good progress in reaching standards which are above average by the time you leave, and the school prepares you well for the next stage of your education.

"You get on well with your teachers, who make sure you know how well you are doing and what you need to do to improve your work.

"They give you a good variety of things to do in lessons, but the activities do not always match closely enough your different interests and abilities.

"The headteacher, all the staff and the governing body want to make the school even better.

"To help them to do this, we have asked them to make sure all the teachers include activities in their lessons which fully meet your different needs and keep you interested all the time.

"We also want them to make sure that all the teachers apply the points system consistently.

"You can help by behaving as well as you can in all your lessons and by telling your teachers what you think would help to make lessons even more interesting."

On a scale of 1 to 4 (outstanding, good, satisfactory, and inadequate), Maiden Beech scored a straight score of 2 (good) with an "overall effectiveness" rating of "good".

But in the Key Findings section of his report, Mr Gaff highlighted teaching as "good and on occasions outstanding".

He added: "Teachers are knowledgeable and enthusiastic about their subjects, and most provide a good range of activities in their lessons.

"They ensure that students know the levels that they are achieving and what they need to do to reach their targets."

The other key findings during the two-day inspection were:

• "This is a good school where achievement is good as a result of mostly good teaching.

"It is not yet outstanding because, on a very small number of occasions, teachers do not enable students to make at least good progress in lessons by giving them tasks which fully match their abilities and provide them with sufficient challenge."

• "Students achieve well because they are taught well and the school uses its assessment procedures very effectively to identify and address any potential underperformance.

"Those who are disabled or have special educational needs make good progress because of the well-tailored support they receive from teachers and teaching assistants."

• "Students' behaviour is good and their positive attitudes contribute well to their learning.

"They feel safe because they are not unduly concerned about bullying and report that it is dealt with promptly and effectively when it does occur."

• "Leadership and management are good. Leaders have successfully addressed the areas for improvement highlighted by the school's last inspection [in November, 2008].

"The leadership of teaching and the management of performance, including professional development for teachers, are effective.

"Together with the governing body, leaders have accurately evaluated the school's performance and have identified appropriate priorities for further development."

Addressing the annual meeting of Crewkerne Town Council a few weeks before the OFSTED inspection, Headteacher Stephen Smith spoke

Fire crews tackle thatch roof blaze

ELEVEN fire crews, including at least one from Crewkerne, were sent to tackle a blaze in the roof of a thatched terrace in West Coker.

The incident happened shortly after 7.30pm on Sunday evening (June 17th).

A brigade spokesman said: "The fire service mobilised eight pumping appliances to reports of a thatch fire at The High Street, West Coker.

"Appliances from Crewkerne, Martock, Yeovil and Sherborne attended, with special supporting appliances from Yeovil, Street and Burnham on Sea.

"On arrival, crews confirmed this to be a terrace of three thatch properties, smoke issuing from the middle property.

"The fire involved approximately ten square metres of thatch.

"The crews extinguished the fire using two hose reel jets and once compressed air foam lance from an aerial ladder platform.

"The cause was accidental."

There were no reports of injuries.

about how he had settle-in over the previous 18 months and about what he hoped to achieve in the future.

He told councillors: "I now regard the school as my school.

"I remain convinced that we are a good school. Our teaching is good — and I know that because I am always dropping in to lessons.

"My challenge is to make it outstanding.

"We have a committed, hard-working staff who want the best for our young people and I am sure we will get there in time."

Crewkerne Lions celebrate 30 years

THE Lions Club of Crewkerne celebrated its 30th charter anniversary on Saturday, June 16th with a formal dinner held at Clapton Village Hall and attended by the District Governor, Clif Cane, and Lions from Axminster, Babbacombe, Bridport, Ilminster, Seaton, St Marychurch and Tiverton.

All fingers were crossed for the weather as president Nicky Bussell made her entrance in a unique style, arriving in a trap pulled by Hamish the donkey, who had only recently been trained to the harness. Mrs Bussell said: "He was lovely, so gentle and he handled it very well. I was surprised because I am a big girl and was a bit nervous it might be too much for him. He has a very unique bray and we managed to record it on our Christmas CD." She gave Hamish a well-deserved pat before greeting her fellow Lions and walking into the dinner to the song "Over the Rainbow", performed by her daughter and fellow Lion, Mandy Bussell.

The gathering also enjoyed an after dinner talk from the founder of Shop Mobility, Clive Davis and dancing to Patches.

Crewkerne Lions is a unique club in that it has three generations of members, with one third of its membership of 30 being aged under 30. The club recently awarded two members the Melvin Jones Fellowship. This is the highest award a Lion can receive from the organisation for a club of Crewkerne's size. Mrs Bussell said: "I would like to say how proud I am of the Lions family in Crewkerne, because we are very much a family and I am so pleased and proud of them for what they have all achieved."

'Sleeping Beauty' scoops drama awards

■ DIDN'T THEY DO WELL: The cast of 'Sleeping Beauty' with their certificates and, above, in costume in January

A CLASSIC winter pantomime went down a storm with drama experts as well as appreciative audiences.

The packed-out January production of "Sleeping Beauty", by the Crewkerne United Dramatic and Operatic Society (CUDOS), has just hauled-in a handful of awards by the Somerset Fellowship of Drama.

The fellowship named CUDOS as county winners of the following: Best Village Musicians; Romantic Duet of the Year (Vicky Rolley and Lucy Perry); Stars of the Future (Katy Askew, Phoebe Edgington and Makenzie Peters).

CUDOS was also nominated in several other categories during the fellowship's annual awards evening.

The nominations were for: Best Director (Ann Brolly); Best Musical Director (John Perry); Best Village Design;

Best Chorus Singing; Best Original Costumes; Dame of the Year (Martin Singleton); Principal Girl of the Year (Vicky Rolley); Linkman of the Year (Amanda Perry); Brokers Men of the Year (Rob Stephens and Alex McCallum).

Tristan Edgington also received a Chairman's Award for Endeavour.

CUDOS spokesman Dave Brolly said the society was delighted with its latest honours.

The society has won numerous drama and opera awards over the last decade. Its previous gong was a Somerset Fellowship of Drama David Beech Award for the 2011 production of the musical "Sweet Charity".

■ TAKING A BREAK IN CREWKERNE: Four Fat Blokes and Stewart cycling team

'Four Fat Blokes' cycle through town

CREWKERNE is often a popular stopping-off point for tourists heading for the coast, especially cyclists, and local shoppers may have seen a van in town last week with amusing wording on the side.

"Four Fat Blokes and Stewart" were cycling to Land's End for charity when they stopped off in Crewkerne.

Mark Munday, Stewart Catterall, Mark Langford, Andy Cain and Paul Webb were all part of the management team from Heritage Automotive in Salisbury.

All have had family and loved ones affected by cancer so when deciding to embark on a personal challenge to cycle from their Volkswagen Dealership in Salisbury to Land's End, it seemed the obvious choice of charity to support.

They admitted that by no stretch of the imagination were they cyclists, but with a little careful planning, copious amounts of lager and masses of enthusiasm, they were determined to complete the challenge.

Cycling 250 miles in three days the team raised a total of £4,440 for Cancer Research UK.

The trip took them from Salisbury to Honiton, Honiton to Fowey and Fowey to Land's End.

To add to their total, visit www.justgiving.com/teams/4fatblokesandstewart

Bowls club welcoming young players

SEVERALLS Jubilee Bowls Club in Crewkerne has offered free coaching to pupils of Maiden Beech Academy over the last four years and have now been given a sponsorship fee to help the youngsters feel more part of the team.

The club has provided playing opportunities and coaching for about 12 pupils after school during the summer term, which has been organised with the assistance and support of Bob Brunt.

All resources are provided free of charge by the club and the sessions culminate in a schools' challenge match against pupils from Swanmead School.

As a result of this link the club has recently taken three junior members from Maiden Beech Academy on to its books, Brandon Turner and Peter Loaring, and Will Date who later has to move to London but the club assisted him in finding a new club in his area.

Brandon and Peter received further coaching at the club and entered the Bowls England Youth Development Scheme, qualifying for the Somerset School of Excellence sessions in Taunton and Bristol. They have become committed, enthusiastic and helpful members of the club and will be playing a number of representative matches during outdoor season.

The club approached Maiden Beech for a small contribution of £50 to pay for new club shirts for the boys with the school's name on their sleeve. They were delighted to actually receive £150 from Mr

Brunt which came from the School Sports Partnership Fund.

He said: "Your club fully deserves this. The work put in would have cost far more in coaching claimed by other sports."

The boys were delighted with their new shirts and said they had enjoyed the semi-finals in Taunton and the finals in Bristol. They have both now been playing for three years.

Peter, aged 12, said: "I like bowls because it's interesting and gives me something to do outside."

"I have been really welcomed by my team, they look after me and help me out and I am hoping to do it again this year and get more from school interested."

Brandon, aged 13, added: "I like the atmosphere of the game. It is a non-contact sport and not very competitive, everyone is polite and well-mannered and it's good to be part of a friendly team."

"I've spoken to my new teacher at Wadham and they are already talking about starting a team there."

Severalls Jubilee Bowls Club coach Harry Black commented: "The are great ambassadors for the school. In the short time they have been doing it they have done extremely well. Now they have their shirts, like all sportsmen, they can wear the shirt with pride for the club."

"When they went to Bristol to the school of excellence it was a learning curve for them. They were up against seasoned youngsters but considering how short a time they have been playing, they did exceptionally well."

"We are very proud of them. The club is delighted to have them. It's a breath of fresh air."

The £150 was presented to club members on a visit to the school and will be earmarked for equipment for the junior members only. Interested numbers are down so far this year and the club is planning to put Swanmead and Maiden Beech together in a team against Yeovil.

■ RECOGNITION FOR A JOB WELL DONE: Severalls Jubilee Bowls Club members, Hilary and Ken Leamon and Harry Black, receive a cheque from Bob Brunt and deputy head of Maiden Beech, Helen Morris, alongside junior club members Peter Loaring and Brandon Turner

■ MEMBERS of the Crewkerne Short Mat Bowls Club are going from strength to strength. The 30-plus regulars held their annual meeting recently at the Henhayes Centre, where they also let fly with their bowls. A club spokesman said the group was unanimous in wanting to continue with twice-weekly sessions at the centre. He added: "Henhayes offers us first class facilities. In addition to an electric mat-winding machine and all the necessary accoutrements, there's no beating the lady with the tea trolley at half time! Although we have more than 30 members, there is room to admit one or two more during our Monday evening session from 7pm to 9.30pm." Experienced players and beginners are welcome. More details are available from Alan on 01460 271541.

War heroes unite for memorabilia event

HUNDREDS of military memorabilia buffs - and a handful of genuine WWII heroes - enjoyed browsing some heavyweight kit on display at Haselbury Mill on Sunday, June 17th.

The annual event, organised by members of the Wessex area of the Military Vehicle Trust, was free to the public who were invited to make donations to the Gurkha Welfare Trust.

By Alex Alexander

One of the organisers, Roy Gallina, from Chard, said about 40 exhibitors brought items to the event from as far afield as Poole. They included several four-miles-per-gallon troop carriers, veteran Green Goddess fire engines, a dozen lovingly-restored Jeeps (including some which saw action during D-Day), and enough mounted armour-busting machine and anti-tank guns to see-off any remnants of the Third Reich lingering around Haselbury Plucknett.

The day ended with a tribute fly-past by a pair of original WWII Auster spotter aircraft.

The Military Vehicle Trust has a website at: www.mvt.org.uk.

Sam, 8, wins big at show with his birds

YOU have probably heard of Fireman Sam, well meet birdman Sam.

Eight-year-old Sam Dunning, from Chard, has just returned with a box full of rosettes after taking his ducks and poultry to the Bath and West and Devon County shows, competing in an age group which goes up to 16.

His biggest prize was for his silver call ducks, the duck won best female and the drake won its class as well as winning overall.

Despite his still tender years, the young bird breeder who has been showing for three years, is already expanding his collection to aviary birds.

His interest grew after the family bought a few laying hens at an auction and gradually most of his pocket money has gone into rare breeds which he sells on to add to his own stock.

By Marion Draper

His mother Sandra who works holistically with animals, but mostly horses, said she actually had a phobia of birds and was terrified of the flapping to begin with but has had to learn to live with them to accommodate her son's passion.

She has even given up her horse paddock next to their house, which is now fenced into sections for the 12 different breeds of hen and has a small pond for the six types of ducks.

Sandra said, the showing was all Sam's idea and was better than him sitting indoors playing video games, he has already learnt a lot about buying and selling through his hobby.

Sadly there are others who do not respect the youngster's passion and a recent break into his pens one night left £500 worth of birds missing, some of them his favourite ducks, and a large hole cut into one of the fences.

He has been on the lookout at auctions since then to spot his prize birds but hasn't let the incident put him off his ambition.

Currently a pupil at Chard School, Sam who is also a member of the Perry Street Anglers said his favourite chickens are Polands, while butter-scotch call are his favourite ducks.

When he grows up he would like to be a pilot but also own a chain of pet shops that keep the pets on display in a natural way, more like a mini farm.

Indoor fun at Lions fair

By Marion
Draper

INDOORS for the first time in its 27 year history, the Ilminster Lions Summer fete still drew a crowd - thanks to the generosity of Swanmead School - and still proved a good fundraiser for the hard working club.

As the field outside was waterlogged stallholders were spread around the foyer, the perimeter of the school hall and outside courtyard and the entertainment, was held in the hall where people could sit and enjoy refreshments. Most of the planned entertainment went ahead with the exception of the bouncy castle and climbing wall.

Greenfylde School country dancers adapted very well to the change, not used to their audience being quite so close and kept track of possible toes to step on.

In the car park Ilminster fire crew brought their appliance, always popular with the families, and there was something new in the form of the Carnivals In Somerset Promotions Project bus. CISPP is a lottery funded organisation to promote the continuation of carnival in Somerset, run by carnival committee members from across the county. They have created a DVD on the history of carnival, which is shown in the bus. They take costumes and props and give talks, which they are hoping will be taken up by schools and community groups in the Ilminster, Chard and Crewkerne area. They also worked with the BBC programme British Heritage Heroes.

The Ilminster Lions would like to thank everyone for their patience and understanding after the last minute logistical nightmare, in particular head-teacher Mark Walker for allowing the use of the building and everyone who went along to enjoy the day.

The joy of dancing

DANCING for fun and health is what it's all about for dance teacher Roy Warry, who took to the floor himself over ten years ago when some work colleagues suggested it. Gradually they dropped out but Roy saw it as a challenge to complete and never stopped.

When he was made redundant from Westlands he decided to teach and now runs Strictly Jive dance classes in modern and jive on Wednesdays at the Victoria Hall, Crewkerne, and in the Parish Rooms Ilminster on Fridays, both from 9.30-11am.

Together with his business partner David Hancox who goes out with his sister Jacqueline, they also run classes in Norton Sub Hamdon and at Glastonbury and hold regular dances.

Born and bred in Norton Sub Hamdon, Roy's life was influenced in a way by dancing before he was even born. His mother moved to the area from London after being blitzed and she met his father, from Taunton, at a local dance.

Roy has found the change of pace from being a procurement officer for 35 years to being a combination of disc jockey, dance teacher and charity fundraiser has brought him joy after a difficult time in his life. He is keen that others should find the same happiness by having fun to music.

WHAT do you enjoy most about dance teaching?

I love watching people dance and you've got all the elements there, friendship, fun music and activity. People go around with big smiles on their faces. It is a partner dance but you don't need to bring one to learn and people partner up once they have the steps.

WHAT kind of music do you dance to?

Everything from 1940s to the current chart hits, it has to be something that people will feel they can really dance to. I make a new playlist every week and like any DJ does, I look at what is happening on the dance floor and respond to what people want.

WHAT kind of charities do you support?

I have hooked up with the Moon Bear charity and am doing a disco in October at Yeovil Rugby Club which will be a bit of Saturday Night Fever type event and am helping St Margaret's Hospice by holding a dance in the flower show tent a Norton in August.

On August Bank Holiday Monday we have a charity bike ride and I am doing the route for that. Our local pub, the Lord Nelson, is very supportive.

DO you think TV programmes like Strictly Dancing have revived interest?

In a way, yes, because they have made people more aware that dancing can be for anyone. They have had characters on there that you wouldn't necessarily associated with dancing, and all ages too.

WHAT would you say has been most rewarding so far?

There was a group of people who wanted to go to a ball in Ilminster, to watch them achieve their objective was massive.

WAS it hard to change jobs after so long?

Westland was a good company to work for with some fantastic people, but I was tired. The last job I had was a team putting together the modifications on aircraft that had to be done as quickly as possible to get them out to our troops.

Due to cutbacks there were less of us doing the same job and you can't give your best when you are tired so when they offered redundancy I took it.

HAVE you always been an active person?

I used to play football a lot, it is a passion of mine and helped manage the village club for a while. Now I am more into golf and cycling.

WHAT do you enjoy about village life?

There is a real sense of community in Norton and I was lucky, I had brilliant parents who spent so much time with us, doing the garden together and walking up to Hamhill where we would buy a packet of cherries. I work with the community to set up charity dances and I am rubbish at fishing but there is nothing like sitting by the river on a Sunday listening to the bells ringing at Chiselborough. It's so calm, I love it.

60 seconds

WHAT would you want to have on your desert island?

I'd have to have my laptop so I could have music and photos of the family and be able to communicate with them.

Hopefully there will be fruit, I love fruit and salads but I'd like some crusty bread and my golf clubs.

ARE you interested in the Olympics?

I think we are so lucky this year, with the Euros happening and the Jubilee brought so many people together and next the Olympics. It's all so positive, an amazing time.

IF you could go back in time which era would you choose?

Probably the most exciting time in development terms is right now but I'd love to go back to the sixties, it was a fantastic era with great music and I'd love the six week holidays I had growing up.

IS the jive your favourite dance?

I still do a bit of ballroom but jive is my favourite because you can dance to virtually any music. People think that it has to be fast but I like to take the music down and go through the moves. There are hundreds of moves and I am still learning myself. Once you have some moves you can dance anywhere.

WHO would you most like to meet?

There are so many inspiring people but if you asked who I'd like to be, it would be one of those reporters who carries on working in the middle of a raging fire or something. I have a friend who is a freelance journalist and was in Tiananmen Square during the trouble, it is so inspiring that he has gone from being at my local school, out across the world like that.

WHAT is your ambition?

I want to be successful in business, I'm too young to retire but I want to be in employment that makes me happy - I don't want a million pounds. Sometimes we spend too much time being serious, we need to spend time with our families because you don't know what is around the corner and no one ever says: 'I wish I'd spent more time in the office.'

Bonners Delicatessen

You will need:

- 1.5kg / 3-3½lb free range chicken
- 100g / 4oz chorizo, thinly sliced
- 1 large onion halved
- Few sprigs of thyme
- ½ tsp ground cinnamon
- 3 tbsp olive oil
- Salt and ground black pepper

SERVES 4: (Please note you will require a barbecue which has a lid and a temperature gauge capable of reaching 180-190°C)

Prepare the bird for stuffing between the meat and the skin by carefully working your fingers between the skin and breast meat until it becomes loose and repeat this procedure on the legs.

Position the chorizo slices under the loosened skin until all the slices have been used up and all of the breast and majority of the legs are covered.

Place the thyme and onion halves in the cavity of the bird. Mix the oil and cinnamon together and season well.

Finally season the chicken with the salt and pepper before barbecuing the bird using the roasting method (see your barbecue instruction manual) on a medium heat for 1 - 1½ hours. To check when the bird is ready insert a knife into the thickest part of the thigh and check the juices run clear.

Leave the chicken to rest for around 10 minutes before carving. Serve with grilled peppers, crisp green salad and warm fresh crusty bread.

■ OPEN FARM: Nick Bragg owner of Frogmary Green Farm and Geoff Chapman who brought the cows

■ SOMERSET YOUNG FARMERS: Georgina Carter - Wessex group chairman; Donna Grabham - Ilminster secretary, and Joy Davenport - Wessex secretary

A glimpse of farm life

A GLORIOUS break in the weather brought the crowds flocking to Frogmary Green Farm, South Petherton, for Open Farm Sunday where there was a variety of things to see and do.

As the only local farm open for the annual event, supported by LEAF (Linking Environment and Farming) others nearby had contributed animals and machinery to make the attraction even bigger.

The farm experience included wildlife ponds; a large display of old and new tractors which could be clambered on and a massive new combine harvester on loan from the Dillington estate; up close contact with livestock; a view of the new chicks in the sheds kept warm by woodchip burners; massive potato sheds; and guided farm walks.

There were activities for younger children who could make a rocking chicken or a Father's Day card and Packham Brothers thatchers had a straw lobbying contest.

Somerset Young Farmers Wessex Group were on hand to talk to anyone interested in their many activities, and show off their trophies from the Royal Bath and West Show where they gained most points overall in stock judging and highest score in dairy and beef.

Ice creams were going down very well in the sunshine and cream teas were sold for Christian Aid.

Team Poverty were also there - three of the four men who are cycling from London to Paris for Christian Aid from July 18th to 22nd. Malcolm Cavill, Jeremy Taylor and Andy Eaton said they were all crazy enough to say it sounded like a good idea when seasoned cyclist Rob Walrond had said he was planning the trip. The men have set a fundraising target of £2,000 each and have to at least raise £1,300. After 300 miles in four days, the plan is to arrive the day before the Tour De France and cash in on the atmosphere.

Owner of Frogmary Green Farm, Nick Bragg, said he was very pleased with the open farm event and the opportunity to show the public where some of their food comes from and the work he is doing to make a better environment. He was also grateful to the others who pitched in to help make it a success.

Early flower show blues

AN early flower show for Hinton St George and District Gardening Club resulted in disappointment for the committee who had hoped it would draw more support to the previously flagging event.

Although the quality of entries were a reasonable showing, considering the battering local gardens had received from the weather in recent weeks, the volume was low and many of the children's classes had none at all.

This was a particular blow as the committee have tried to get the children involved in the show to encourage gardeners of the future.

The school did, however, submit a selection of drawings of flora by some of the children.

Those who supported the event, held in the village hall on Saturday, were able to enjoy some delicious homemade cakes provided by ladies from Cats Protection and admire the roses, flower arrangements and individual blooms.

There was a good showing in the baking and jam classes as well as cupcakes decorated by children and some good quality photographs.

The highest points for children were, Lucy Duval, Eleanor Duval and Arthur Wilkinson, who was the only child there on the day.

The school drawings winners were Matilda, Oliver and Erin.

The photography prize was awarded jointly to Mary Spilsbury for her scene of May Day in Padstow and Kay Lewenden for her portrait of a little girl reading.

Lyn Spencer Mills was judged winner of best front of house and flower of the month as well as highest points in section B.

Best front garden went to Tim and Mary Spilsbury.

Joan Farris won the miniature arrangement with her teacup and spoon and Cynthia Brown was the champion baker with highest points for all her edible delights.

Highest points in section B and overall best in show went to Pip Mandeville.

■ BEST FRONT GARDEN: Tim and Mary Spilsbury

Christening bowl gift to village

SHEPTON Beauchamp Parish Church of St Michael, marked the Queen's Diamond Jubilee with a special church service, during which a new Christening bowl, made by the local pottery Dennis Chinaworks, was presented and blessed.

As the congregation gathered, the eight Shepton Beauchamp bellringers rang a full peal of grand sire triples with 5040 changes taking two hours 56 minutes.

By Marion Draper

Father Geoff Wade explained to the congregation how the pottery had come up with the idea, some months beforehand, to make something special for the village to mark this auspicious year.

The bowl was thrown by Rory McCleod, designed by Buchan Dennis and decorated by Vanessa Thompson. It will line the ancient, crumbling font when required and be displayed in the baptism windowsill when not in use.

Father Wade said the community was very grateful for what the pottery had done, he then blessed the bowl, giving thanks for the many gifts and talents within the village which made their community such a special place to live.

There was also a debut performance by the Shepton Choir, led by Lucy Blows and accompanied on piano by recent winner of the Hinton Festival Young Musicians of the Year, Lily Blows. The choir was inspired to get together by Gareth Malone and the Military Wives.

With a rousing rendition of Rule Britannia led by soloist Anne Hill with lots of flag waving, the service finished in style.

The magnificent font bowl is 50cm in diameter with a wide rim slip trailed with the baptismal inscription: "You are my child, my beloved, in whom I am well pleased".

The interior is decorated with a pattern of scallop shells to reflect a mother of pearl holy water scoop presented to the parish in 1872 by the Reverend V S Coles and used in every Christening.

The exterior is decorated with stylised leaf motifs taken from a commemorative stained glass window in the church, which records the life of the infant John Coles, who died in 1888.

The foot rim is impressed with a Latin inscription which translates to: "Dennis Chinaworks made this font for St Michael's Church, Shepton Beauchamp, in the time of Rector Geoffery Wade to celebrate 60 years of the reign of Queen Elizabeth."

■ CREATED FOR ALL: Buchan Dennis and Rory McCleod of Dennis Chinaworks with Father Geoff Wade

■ BRAND NEW FONT: Makers and villagers gather around the Diamond Jubilee gift

■ NEW CHOIR: Shepton Beauchamp Choir led by Lucy Blows

Martock Guardians welcome Rex Trevett Big Band for Jazz Picnic

THE Martock Guardians are trying a new venture at the end of June; an outdoor jazz picnic featuring the Rex Trevett Big Band from Bridport, a 25-strong long established band that will be playing hit tunes from the 1930 to 1980 period, made famous by the prewar Swing Bands and the postwar Big Bands. The band plays out doors in Bridport on Market Days from early Spring to late Autumn.

Here, the band, plus vocalists, will be playing in an open-sided marquee on the parkland behind The Old Orchard, Water Street, Martock TA12 6JP, the entry being just beyond and opposite the Matfurlong turning when coming from the centre of Martock.

There will be ten gazebos for the audience to use if there is inclement weather. The audience are invited to bring a picnic, with rugs, folding chairs and tables, if available. There will be ample car parking on site, beyond the performance area, via a marked route.

The Jazz Picnic will take place on Thursday, June 28th at 7.30pm. There will be a full bar and puddings will be available. Tickets will be £8 at the gate or £7 in advance from Martock News, Martock Gallery and from 01935 822706. This should be a very enjoyable occasion in lovely surroundings in the middle of the Martock Conservation Area.

AN UNFORGETTABLE EVENING OF GYPSY JAZZ, DJANGO-STYLE

ILMINSTER Arts Centre welcomes back Tim Kliphuis and his truly dazzling 'Grappelli' style of violin playing, but on this occasion with guitarist Paulus Schäfer who is generally regarded as the very best of hundreds of players who seek to reproduce the inimitable style of the great Django Reinhardt. Audiences can expect an unforgettable evening of 'gypsy jazz' based on the 'Django' sound of the 30s, 40s and 50s.

Born into a Dutch Sinti (Gypsy) community in 1978, Paulus learned to play the guitar at a very early age. Besides listening to fellow Sinti and records of his idol Django Reinhardt, it was Wasso Grünholz – a legend within the Sinti community – and his nephew Stochelo Rosenberg, from whom he learned the most. After a short period of time, in which Paulus briefly took over the lead guitar of Jimmy Rosenberg in the Gipsy Kids, he formed the Paulus Schäfer Gipsy Band and recorded his debut album 'Into the Light' in 2002. He has performed at many concerts and numerous jazz festivals around the world, and is today regarded as one of the most talented Gypsy Jazz guitarists.

Dutchman Tim Kliphuis is a classically trained violinist and widely regarded as the inheritor of the Stephane Grappelli crown. Kliphuis first made his name playing with the fiery European gypsy guitarists but soon developed a crossover style taking him to classical, jazz and folk venues across the world. Tim's eclectic tastes in music have led to collaborations with legends in other styles such as Frankie Gavin (Ireland), Richard Galliano (France) and the late Les Paul (USA), but he is still in touch with the traditional Sinti gypsy community through regular performances with The Rosenberg Trio, Fapy Lafertin and others.

The Paulus Schäfer/Tim Kliphuis Quartet play at Ilminster Arts Centre on Thursday, June 28th from 8pm. Tickets cost £15, and a pre-show supper is available at 7pm for £9.50. GYPSY WOWS CREWKERNE

GYPSY Watkins yet again delivered a stunning show at The Henhayes Centre last Saturday night to the delight of the audience.

Ron Spencer, vice chairman of the Centre, said "I was blown away with Gypsy's performance, I had reservations about listening to an opera singer for two hours, however I was shocked at the way she delivers one opera song followed by a pop song throughout the show.

"I don't think Gypsy left many genres untouched from Opera, Jazz, Rock, Pop, Country, Folk, Blues and even a touch of Gospel. The show lasted two hours, I could have listened to Gypsy for another two hours, she's amazing."

Gypsy Said "Henhayes is an immediately welcoming venue; the staff are great, with the audience supportive from the start. It was easy to have a good time on stage, hopefully we will be back there soon."

Purple, Gypsy's husband said "The greatest thing about performing in community centres is that they are honest caring places where people come together, who are lonely or sad, happy or glad. Some people come to see Gypsy on their own or in groups, but they all join in to enjoy the evening".

Gypsy's next concert is in Sidmouth at the Stowford Community Centre on the Saturday, June 30th.

Review | Concerts in the West, performance by Rêveries Musicales

8 June 2012, Ilminster Arts Centre. Review by Anthony Pither

COMPOSERS have always borrowed from each other and even from themselves. For Bach and Handel, repackaging was a practical way of life. In this performance by Rêveries Musicales, we heard distinctive works by each of them: Bach's humorous capriccio on the departure of his beloved brother, and one of Handel's greatest chamber works, his Oboe Sonata in G minor.

In the ingeniously titled Musical Magpies and Compositional Cuckoos, three brilliant Royal Academy of Music post-graduates performed eight pieces by eight different Baroque composers who had borrowed, or combined prevalent influences from several countries.

The programme began with an oboe sonata by Nicholas Chédeville who had paid a publisher to pass the work off as a creation of the famous Vivaldi! Characteristic of the whole evening was the passionate playing of the members of Rêveries Musicales - Leo Duarte (baroque oboe), Jonathan Rees (baroque cello) and Tom Foster (harpisichord) who each provided witty introductions. Tom prefaced his realisation of Froberger's Tombeau, a dedication to the composer's friend Blancrocher, with an amusing insight: Was the descending scale, with which the short piece concluded, a reference to Monsieur Blancrocher falling down stairs or descending into hell?

A selection from Marin Marais' Suite d'un goût exotique was the perfect vehicle with which to show off Jonathan's virtuosic playing of the viol da gamba. In the final work, the gamba took on a continuo role with the harpsichord, while Leo raced through the fast movements and heightened the pathos in the slow ones in Couperin's first suite from Les goûts réunis, a bringing together of all the most tasteful flavours of the time.

GREEN FINGERS | Pippa Greenwood will give tips on growing great veg

Pippa Greenwood to give talk at Forde Abbey

RENOWNED for her infectious passion for plants and home-grown produce, celebrity gardener and best-selling author Pippa Greenwood is coming to Forde Abbey on Sunday, July 1st to give a talk entitled "Grow Great Veg."

Pippa Greenwood has been a familiar face on television for many years. Pippa started her media career with Alan Titchmarsh on the gardening slot for BBC1's Daytime Live programme in 1988. For over 13 years she appeared regularly on BBC2's Gardener's World, presenting many items on garden pests and diseases, science and gardening, as well as creating and running an organic kitchen garden. Pippa has also appeared on many radio shows and other television shows. She writes regular features in many well known gardening magazines. Pippa lives in Hampshire on a windswept hillside with strongly alkaline heavy clay soils.

With this weird and wonderful weather we're having, Pippa is sure to be asked some searching questions after her talk. For tickets to Pippa Greenwood's talk, priced at £7 for RHS members and £9 for Non-RHS members, please call Forde Abbey on 01460 220231. The talk starts at 6.30pm and there will be plenty of time to ask questions, chat to Pippa and maybe have a book signed afterwards.

SPOTLIGHT ON MY SERVICE

Axe Skip Hire

AXE Skip Hire was started in 1985 by John Bostock and his wife Jane. They started with just one lorry and 20 skips and over the years John and Jane built up the family business and were joined by their son James in 1997. Today the successful business located in Kilmington, employs 7 staff with 4 Lorries and operates as a Waste Transfer Station.

Sadly in 2009 John, who was well known locally, lost his 2 year battle against cancer. The business was then passed on to John's son James, who runs the business with the help of his wife Karen, under the watchful eye of Jane who still regularly helps at the yard.

In the last few months of his life John and the family received tremendous support from the Hospiscare team and this has inspired the family to raise awareness and much needed funds for the Charity. The family have been fundraising for Hospiscare since 2009 under the banner of "4 one night only" where over £15,000 has been raised for the Axminster Friends of Hospiscare.

Hospiscare has remained Axe Skip Hire's nominated charity and to follow the progress of forthcoming events keep an eye on the website at "4 One Night Only"

John took great pride in both his work and staff and would be proud to see how the current team of Pepe, Martin, Neil, Colin, Wallace, Chris and Ben have helped and supported James, Jane and Karen Bostock run this family business.

Axe Skip Hire offer a quality service, whether you require a single skip or a multiple contract. They currently supply many of the major builders and developers in the area. Also they pride themselves on the service they offer and aim to satisfy most requests including multiple changes, same day turn around or hire and wait options. Operating within a 15 mile radius they offer a range of skip to suit most needs.

We have four sizes of skip available to hire, from the 3 cubic yard midi skip through to the high sided 10 cubic yard skip. In the guide below you will find approximate dimensions of the skips available along with the estimated amount of full bin bags each skip can hold.

The cost of hiring a skip is dependent on your location and the contents of the skip.

If you require the skip to be sited on a public road, we need to get permission from your local council to do so. We will apply for this on your behalf, it should be noted that different councils respond to these requests at different speeds and grant different durations and at different costs, we'll contact you to discuss the requirement in detail before applying for permissions.

The maximum hire period is usually 7 - 10 days. For an accurate quote for the hire of any of our skips please call us on 01297 32470

Major improvements for new Kia Sorento

- New chassis amongst the significant changes to Sorento
- Fresh, new look exterior with LED lights and 19-inch alloy wheels
- Extensive range of new convenience and safety technologies
- UK specification details to be released in the autumn

KIA'S hugely successful Sorento SUV will receive a host of significant improvements when the new upgraded model goes on sale later this year. Significant changes include a re-engineered bodyshell, enhanced powertrains for best-in-class fuel economy with lower emissions, improved ride, handling and refinement, additional convenience and safety features, plus a fresh, new look for the exterior.

"Since its introduction in 2009, the second-generation Kia Sorento has achieved more than 620,000 sales around the world. Today, it is manufactured in Korea and the USA, attracting over 130,000 U.S. customers last year to rank as the best-selling Kia model in the States for the second year in a row," commented Thomas Oh, Kia's Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer of the International Business Division. "We have given very careful attention to owners' feedback, and the upgraded Sorento is not just a cosmetic exercise but a major step forward for our popular SUV."

Kia's designers have created new headlamps with LED positioning lights, a new tailgate with LED rear combination lamps, new bumpers (front and rear) with vertical-axis fog lights and a larger area of body-color surface, and an expanded choice of wheels to include larger diameter (19-inch) alloys – depending on market.

Inside the five- or seven-seater cabin, there are more soft-touch surfaces plus a new LCD instrument cluster, new center stack with 7-inch display screen, and a new console featuring a straight-gate selector with a leather-booted lever on automatic transmission models – reinforcing the vehicle's more luxurious character. Offered in black or beige cloth or leather, the interior can be bathed in natural light through a larger panoramic sunroof (depending on version) with no centre cross beam and a powered blind.

New Sorento is due to arrive in the UK in the autumn and full details of UK specification and trim will be available in due course.

Citroën steps up its strategy for international growth with two new models: Citroën C-Elysée & Citroën C4 L

- Citroën introduces two new models as part of its global brand strategy
- Citroën C-Elysée & Citroën C4 L to be launched in selected international markets
- Citroën launches DS line in China on 28 June 2012

CITROËN is stepping up its worldwide development and consolidating its standing as a global brand.

Already introduced in Europe, Russia and Latin America, the DS line will be launched in China on 28 June. The brand is also extending and strengthening its product offering, specifically in the C segment, with two new models for high growth international markets, such as the Mediterranean basin, China and Russia.

Citroën is extending its C range with the new Citroën C-Elysée and C4 L, a 'lounge' version of the C4. With more than 20 million vehicle registrations in 2011, the compact saloon market is the biggest automotive segment in the world, representing almost one third of all worldwide passenger car sales.

With highly specific personalities designed to suit their respective market positioning, both new models embody Citroën's trademark flair for style, technology, innovation and quality.

CITROËN C-ELYSÉE

Developed to meet the expectations of the most demanding drivers and passengers, the new Citroën C-Elysée is both stylish and readily accessible to customers in its target markets. With harmonious, prestigious and robust styling, the model's innovative design offers a roomy interior that is ideal for families. The rear compartment is befitting of a saloon in the category above and the large boot offers 506-litres VDA - thanks to a 2.65m wheelbase, the longest in its category.

A broad range of comfort-enhancing equipment is also available, from air conditioning with digital readout, to an MP3 audio system with Bluetooth®.

Depending on the market, the Citroën C-Elysée will be available with the latest generation VTi 72 petrol engine, boasting technology that combines rewarding performance with economical fuel consumption and durability.

The model also benefits from Citroën's knowledge and know-how, from chassis and suspension development to quality assurance. The car's design, including specific suspension clearance and protective guards, was tested all over the world under a full range of driving conditions. As a result, the Citroën C-Elysée offers reliability on the most demanding roads - fundamental for prospective customers who view their car as a long-term investment.

The Citroën C-Elysée will be manufactured in Spain and will be launched in Turkey, Spain, Central Europe and Algeria at the end of 2012.

CITROËN C4 L

The first production Citroën from the Shanghai style centre, the Citroën C4 L is positioned at the top of the C segment. Exuding positive energy, just like the Citroën C4, this visibly prestigious and elegant car offers all of the brand's characteristic qualities including a range-topping finish, an exceptionally relaxing ride and standard-setting onboard comfort.

With elegant and dynamic lines, highlighted by light signatures at the front and rear, all occupants can enjoy the pleasures of first-class travel, thanks to a quiet and refined interior. The lounge-like rear compartment is the direct result of model's long wheelbase, with wrap-around seats, backrests inclined to 29° and headrests designed for added comfort. Innovative technologies include hands-free access and start, touch-screen GPS, reversing camera, fully heated windscreen and air ioniser.

The Citroën C4 L is fitted with the latest generation petrol engines - the THP 150 & 170 (according to country), developed in partnership with the BMW Group, and the VTi 135. All three engines can be mated to a new automatic and sequential 6-speed gearbox.

The Citroën C4 L will be manufactured in each of the zones where it will be sold; Wuhan, China by the end of 2012 and Kaluga, Russia in the first half of 2013.

Donyatt in triples cup triumph

SEVERALLS with Pru Robbins

ON Wednesday, 13th June we held our annual Invitation Mixed Triples Competition when five teams from Severalls played teams from Chard, Chardstock, Crewkerne, Donyatt and South Petherton.

ON THE SPOT...

WEEKENDER SPORT puts Ilminster Cricket Club's WILL DOPSON UNDER THE SPOTLIGHT

Q How long have you been involved in the local cricket scene? Who have you played for?

A Since I played my first game for Horton Boys v Combe at their Poltimore (slope) Ground in the early 60s. In all I played for Ilminster, Dowlsh Wake and the White Horse.

Q Who are the best three players you've played alongside so far, and why?

A Tony Rice at Ilminster - the name says it all. Dave Smallridge at Dowlsh - a class cricketer. Sean Johnson at the Horse - a great player to have on your side.

Q What's the best away ground you've played on?

A The Bridgetown club on Exmoor. Stunning views while fielding on the slope in front of the pavilion.

Q How would you improve things at Ilminster CC?

A I have nothing but admiration for the club in the way it is run from the President and Chairman down through to the Youth set-up. There are things that can be improved but the drive is there if anything needs to be done (more Thatchers would be good too!).

Q Do any games stick out in your memory?

A A Taunton Area Youth Cup Final for Ilminster Colts v Taunton Outcasts on the old Recreation Ground pitch. The ground was ringed with spectators and we beat the Outcasts. White Horse v Chard Casuals, Evening League, I hit 75 not out and we won the league.

Q What are your career-best figures with bat and ball?

A Batting as above. Not sure about bowling - but I took a hat-trick for Dowlsh against Chard Rugby Club in the evening league.

Q Name some young players we should look out for in the future.

A Looking at our own players - George Hayward, Sammy Grinter, Lewis Williams, Josh Lee and hopefully my grandson Luke Dopson. I'm sure the Ilminster Youth teams will produce lots more.

NEXT WEEK: Chard CC's

Glovers in focus

WITH STUART BROOM

Sky Blues up first

YEOVIL Town kick-off the new season in explosive fashion with the visit of Coventry City.

The Sky Blues, who were relegated from the Championship last season, make the trip to Huish Park on Saturday, August 18th in what will be the start of the Glovers tenth season in the Football League.

Coventry were one of the founder members of the Premier league and spent 34 seasons in the top-flight of English football - with the highlight being undoubtedly their 1987 FA cup final triumph when they beat Tottenham Hotspur 3-2 after extra-time at a sun-drenched old Wembley stadium.

The Sky Blues have fallen from grace in subsequent years and will be making their first appearance in the third tier for 48 years.

The match sees a return to his birthplace for defender Martin Cranie who played 12 games on loan for Yeovil back in 2006-07.

The Glovers follow that with two away fixtures at Brentford and Scunthorpe United, before hosting another relegated side Doncaster Rovers followed by local rivals AFC Bournemouth.

They visit the Cherries on Boxing day in the reverse fixture and Portsmouth, the third relegated Championship side, three days later. They start the New Year with a home game against Russell Slade's Leyton Orient.

The last home game of the season is on April 20th against Crewe Alexandra, before travelling to Lancashire to visit Bury for the final game of the campaign.

Westland Sports uproar

YEOVIL Town were quick to reply to suggestions from Westland Sports Chairman Brian Rousell that the Glovers are responsible for the Dorset Premier League club losing their ground at Alvington which has caused the club to resign from the DPL and seen the resignation of their management team of manager Kevin Leigh, Neil Waddleton and Lloyd Green.

Rousell, in a statement on the club's website, blamed particularly Glovers manager Gary Johnson's influence for the decision to allocate the Westland Sport's pitch as Yeovil Town's new training pitch.

He said: "Kevin and Neil decided to leave the club following the Yeovil Town Community Trust decision to withdraw our use of the main pitch at Alvington and allow Yeovil Town FC to use it as its first team training ground."

In a reply posted on the Yeovil Town website they state: "The Yeovil Town Community Sports Trust, Yeovil Town FC, Gary Johnson and Augusta Westland are extremely disappointed at the unjustified criticism that has been levelled at them for the change in pitch arrangements that have been notified to Westland Sports FC for next season."

They then suggest that, despite the decision by the Trust, the pitches still available to Westland Sports FC "certainly exceed the standards of almost every other surface in the DPL, and indeed the Western League, and that neither the Trust nor YTCF are responsible for the club's decision for withdrawing from the DPL."

Rugby taster session for Chard School

■ SCRUM-DOWN: On Tuesday, 12th June Chard School pupils were given a rugby taster session held by Chard Rugby Club coach, Simon Boyd. The pupils practised passing skills and had a multi-directional game of Tag rugby during the session. Mr Boyd will be running a rugby summer camp for children over the summer months. Chard School pupils and PE Teacher Ann Taswell are pictured above with rugby coach Simon Boyd.

Summer football news

WITH HOWARD LARCOMBE

Kingsbury emerge but two go

THERE will be a brand new team taking its place in division four when the Perry Street League begins the 2012-13 season in August.

Kingsbury (Episcopi) were elected into the league at last week's annual meeting held at Perry Street club. The team will be managed by ex-West & Middle Chinnock Reserves team player Darren Hinton.

Ironically, the Chinnocks' second-string are one of two teams to relinquish their places in the league - the other being Norton Athletic.

Hinton was keen to stress the situations were not linked, he said: "Kingsbury have been playing in the Taunton Sunday league for some time. But I had a few games for West & Middle Chinnock and was impressed with the league set-up. The club has therefore decided to switch leagues. But it is not a case of the W&M Chinnock Reserve team changing to Kingsbury.

A number of awards were made at the evening, one of these saw Uplyme Reserves scoop the Bob Hall Fairplay award with an impressive average mark of 9.2 awarded by referees administering their matches.

Crewkerne Town stalwart Darren Frost was awarded the Linesman of the Year award with Wayne Ridout picking up the Referees equivalent.

Bob Brunt presented his Secretary of the Year award to Netherbury's Lee Stork.

Finally, Lyme Regis striker Pete Peacock picked up the Denis Parsons Golden Boot award having scored 48 goals for the Bantams and two for the Reserves.

Other news to emerge from the meeting is that the Chard Hospital cup will now be wholly consigned to midweek matches and that the PSL would be re-admitting representative teams into the Mavis Tate and Durnford (under 18) cups.

Six clubs voted in favour of adopting the 'rolling subs' idea currently being muted by the Football Association. But the sextet were outvoted with clubs suggesting, amongst other comments, that this would give an unfair advantage if a team had a 16-man squad against a 'bare bones' team of 11.

The FA have instigated one new law that has to be adhered to regarding cup finals. If, after normal and extra-time, it is too dark to take penalty kicks then both teams and officials will be required to return a week later to the same venue...just for the penalty shoot-out!

Rain plays a part again

REPORTS AND SCORECARDS

WEST OF ENGLAND PREMIER LEAGUE

RAIN put paid to Ilminster 1st XI hopes of building on last week's impressive 53-run win over Taunton Deane.

Visitors Gloucester City Winget only faced three overs as they attempted to chase down the hosts' 189-8.

There was time for Louis Kraucamp to have GCW professional Alex Hart snapped-up by Jonny Hurford.

But the heavens open soon after and play was washed-out for the day with Ilminster having to settle for an eight point haul.

Earlier, having lost the toss and been inserted the Ilminster top four all got starts with Skipper Sam Spurway top-scoring with 59, his second half-century of the campaign.

Spurway was well supported by Gary Larcombe, a season's best 44, Hurford (27) and Kraucamp (21) as the team closed on 189-8 in a match already reduced to 48 overs per side.

MIDWEEK NEWS: Ilminster 1st XI progressed to the semi finals of the Baker Cup on Monday after beating Staplegrove.

Meanwhile Ilminster 2nds beat Chard 2nds by 23 runs in Tuesday's Somerset Cup quarter-final CHARD 1st XI were put to the sword before also being curtailed by the downpour.

After being inserted by Jon Dalwood visiting Goatacre smashed they way at in excess of 7.5 runs an over to an imposing 286-5.

Opener Ed Kilbee carved his way to a magnificent 119 off just 76 balls of which 17 found their way to the rope and three cleared it!

Later on number six Brad Dawson joined in the carnage with 62 off just 33 balls (4x4s, 3x6s).

All of the Chard attack came in for some stick with Andrew Clancy returning the best figures of 2-39 from his five overs.

The Chard reply started badly with Rob Glentworth trapped in front for a duck. Dale Twiss followed soon after for a quick-fire 15 before the match was abandoned with Chard lurching on 22-2.

ROUND-UP

IN the Somerset division Ilton 1st XI were advised to not even bother making the trip to Bishop's Lydeard.

It was the same story for Ilminster 2nds whose game at Gloucester City Winget was also completely washed-out.

Chard 2nds did manage to get in some cricket on their trip to Chipping Sodbury. Chard skipper Tim Glenn won the toss and inserted the hosts but may have wished he hadn't as they cruised to 119-0.

A collapse then saw league leaders Chard back in the game with the score at 168-5 with Liam Cleal 3-47 and Neil Wyatt 3-57 amongst the wickets.

The visitors eventually closed on 204-7 with opening bowler Andrew Sochoen contributing 13 wides and Cleal eight.

The Chard reply started well with Rory Hellier (16) and Dave Murnane (41) putting on 59 for the first wicket.

But both fell in quick succession and the innings was cut short with the score standing on 100-5.

North Perrott' 1st XIs lead at the top of the Somerset League division two was cut to five points when they went down to a three wicket defeat at wind-blown Castle Cary.

Jason Bond top-scored with 57 and enjoyed an 80-run stand for the fourth wicket with Dave Baggs (34) as the Perrott innings closed on 185-7.

In reply the hosts were in all kinds of trouble at 40-4 but 73 from youngster Josh Stratton saw them home. Skipper Gordon Whorlow was most successful of the visitors' attack taking 3-50.

Barrington 1st XI put last weekend's horror show behind them with a morale-boosting 205-7 as they batted first against visiting Stogumber.

Steve Redwood top-scored with 67 as the top order all got starts.

The Stogumber reply was halted by the weather with the score on 61-2.

South Petherton 1st XI (183-9) remain rooted in the bottom two of division three after a heavy seven wicket defeat at Street (184-3).

Openers Marc Walmsley (52) and Brett Venn (47) had useful knocks for Pethy but Street cruised home.

North Perrott 2nds eased back up to second spot in the division four table courtesy of four sizeable innings and a four wicket haul in the 101-run thrashing of lowly Curry Rivel.

Dom Barnes (77no), Joe Hawkins (62) and Alex Drew (54no) all clipped half-centuries and Stu Barnes chipped-in with 44 as Perrott piled up 255-4. The visitors were blown away for 101 with Hawkins bagging 4-65.

Only 16 overs play was possible in the division five match at Broadway & Horton where visiting Sparkford reached 40-2.

Down in division six Chard A's scheduled visit by Taunton Deane Cavaliers was a complete washout.

There was better news from Barton St David where Ilminster A (178-7) extended their lead at the top of division seven to four points with a three wicket win. The hosts were dismissed for 176 with Mark English (3-29) the most successful of the visitors' attack.

English (47) also top-scored with the bat and was ably assisted by Luke Dopson (35) as Ilminster reached their target in the 39th over.

Down at the bottom of the table E.White (13) was the only player in double figures as Barrington 2nds were shot-out for just 46 in just 21.4 overs at Winscombe.

The hosts strolled home for the loss of just two wickets in 69 balls.

Both local games in division 85 (All Saints v Chilton Polden and South Petherton v North Petherton) were called-off without a ball being bowled in anger.

It was a similar story in division 95E with only one of the three managing any play.

Ilton 2nds had reduced visiting Cranmore 3rds to 122-9 from 46 overs when rain halted play.

Meanwhile Chard 750 collected 30 points to move up to sixth spot when scheduled hosts Curry Rivel 2nds scratched and are now marooned on -77 points!

Finally, Ilminster B's scheduled visit by Lydford was abandoned with no play.

New team at North Perrott

NORTH Perrott Cricket Club has launched a third Saturday side.

This season has seen a surge in players at both senior and junior levels wanting to play for the club. And one way of meeting the demand of senior players for a game is to set up another side to play on Saturdays.

Cricket chairman Phil Spurway is looking into the possibility of the games being at a local ground, he said: "There are discussions that we need to have and a few logistical issues to resolve but nothing that can't be overcome.

"After the 1st and 2nd X1 teams have been selected we still have almost enough players available to field a third side on Saturdays. I'm going to do all I can to keep them here and playing cricket and not see them drift away because they can't get a game."

Spurway is already looking ahead to next year to see if they can join a league.

The team began with a trip to East Coker last Saturday. Batting first the hosts lost early wickets to be18 for 2 before a third wicket stand between Morton and Hardacre added exactly 100 runs.

Some useful hitting by Adam Young (27) and P Morton (42) helped East Coker through to 188 for 7.

Pick of the Perrott bowlers was Lorraine Szczepanski who took 5 for 78 and could have even better figures had four catches not been dropped off her bowling.

There was a steady reply from Perrott with 28 added for the first wicket. Captain Jason Bradley made 22 before being run out. This prompted a regular fall of wickets.

Andy Finch (31) and Rob Haggerty (44) wielded the willow in a valiant effort for victory but the overs ran out and Perrott ended on 151 for 8.

A club spokesman said: "The emergence of the new team is yet another indication that the good times are back at North Perrott for the senior cricket teams after a lean couple of seasons in which they have struggled to win a match.

"The 1st X1 are top of the table and the 2nd X1 are second in their division.

The youngsters are also on a good run, with the Under 16s through to the Mid-Wessex League final to be played at North Perrott on July 10th, while more than 60 children are turning up at the under 12s weekly practice nights on Friday's.

A MAGNIFICENT unbeaten 143 from captain Robbie Hutchings was the highlight as CHARDSTOCK CC compiled an impressive 262-6 at Cheriton Fitzpaine.

The hosts closed out on 196-9 with jack Larcombe claiming 3-37.

DORSET LEAGUE

THE cricketing gods were against Crewkerne CC on Saturday as they were narrowly beaten by Bradford Abbas at Henhayes in their Dorset League Division 5 NW clash.

The first slice of bad luck came as Francis Medley was forced to leave the field after only 15 overs owing to a family illness, leaving Crewkerne with 10 men in the field for 30 overs.

Robbie James (4-45) and Mark Culpitt (3-42) continued their prolific wicket taking form, but not before Bradford Abbas had amassed a competitive total of 191-9.

Lady luck then dealt Crewkerne another blow as James suffered a back injury whilst getting padded up, leaving Crewkerne with only nine fit batsmen.

However a 100-run partnership for the third wicket between Nick Keylock (44) and Jon Gould (66) appeared to have Crewkerne cruising to victory.

However a clatter of wickets saw the hosts fall four runs short as they finished on 187-8.

Crewkerne will be looking to bounce back against Marnhull 2nds this Saturday, squad: A LAWRENCE (CAPTAIN), STEVE BRIGGS, T BRIGGS, G CARR, S COOPER, J GOULD, M CULPITT, R JAMES, N KEYLOCK, RICHARD KEYLOCK, F MEDLEY, D PARSONS, S ROWSWELL, R WAKELY, R WETHERALL. Players meet 12.30pm at Wadham or 1.30pm at Marnhull for a 2pm start.

Last Sunday Crewkerne's friendly side travelled the short distance to All Saints.

Nick Bodger, captaining for the day, would have been delighted with his young sides excellent bowling performance with Rob Keylock (3-9) the pick of the attack as All Saints were bowled out for 127.

However only Mark Pearce (16) and Bodger (11) managed to make double figures as Crewkerne were bowled out for 70.
